New Tenure Policy Adopted By Regents

The Murray State University Board of Regents passed a new tenure policy for faculty at the institution yesterday, climaxing nearly a year of controversy over the termination of 21 instructors last May under the old policy.

The policy, passed by a 5-2 vote by the Regents, was recommended by Dr. Constantine Curris, university president, as a compromise between two other policy proposals. The adopted policy was agreed upon as a compromise between policies proposed by the American Association of University Professors and a committee of the board set up to investigate the tenure situation.

Thirty-eight faculty will be eligible for tenure this year, and will have the choice of using either the old policy or the new. The proposal was passed by the Board at its regular April meeting, held Monday in Owensboro. The new policy met opposition on several points, especially from board member Jim Davis, who said he didn't feel the board had had enough time to look it over. He especially pointed out that he felt that some actual observance by peers should be included in the evaluation of the instructors.

The vote on the new tenure policy originally was 6-1, but Robert Long changed his vote after faculty representative Mark Cunningham indicated to Dr. Curris after the vote that amendments would follow to the tenure policy in coming months. Long said he changed his vote to no because he felt the board should not have to amend the policy it was just passing.

In other action yesterday afternoon, the board discussed, but took no action on, the future of the University School. Board Member "Skip" Neale said his response from the public is that "they just want to know, one way or the other," and said he didn't feel that the board should put off making a decision until the May meeting. Dr. Curris had indicated he wanted more time to receive input from various sources on the situation at the school, and would have a recommendation to the board at the May meeting.

After considerable discussion on the merits and purposes of the school, the board took no action, awaiting a recommendation from Curris.

Joseph Leary of Frankfort was officially designated as special counsel to the University to join university counsel in defending MSU in civil action proceedings brought in federal district court by 11 plaintiffs. The civil proceedings stem from the tenure controversy which started last May.

A recommendation was approved by the board that MSU award up to eight grants-in-aid for women's intercollegiate athletics to become effective with the fall semester, 1975. These grants-in-aid would be to support the programs in women's basketball, tennis, track and cross country.

An art gift was accepted by the board to the University from Mr. Harry L. Jackson of 84 prints by international artists. The prints date from the 1700's to the present with emphasis on the 20th century. The collection will be known as the "The Print Collection of Harry L. Jackson," and will be a part of the permanent collection of the Clara M. Eagle Gallery. It is the largest single art gift that Murray has ever received.

The tenure policy passed by the board deletes all portions of the old policy, with the exceptions of three paragraphs dealing with termination due to immorality, inefficiency, incompetence or insubordination, and coaching duties.

The purpose of tenure, as defined in the new policy, is to: "create an atmosphere favorable to academic freedom and responsibility as defined in the Faculty Handbook, so that society as well as the individual will benefit:

"to provide the faculty member a reasonable expectation of security so that the University may attract and retain quality professional men and women;

"to promote institutional stability by creating a faculty with a strong, long-term commitment to Murray State University."

Eligibility requirements for tenure under the new policy call for a minimum of a master's degree, and a normal probationary period of five years. The probationary period is not to exceed seven (See Tenure, Page 10)

Hunter To Serve On Council

Dr. Donald Hunter of Murray has been appointed by state superintendent of public instruction Dr. Lyman V. Ginger to a new Citizens' Advisory Council that will discuss implementation of a new federal program, Title IV, a program that consolidates several instructionally related projects under one management.

Dr. Hunter, Dean of Murray State University's College of Human Development and Learning, was also selected as council vice chairman.

Dr. Ginger told the group during a recent meeting here with officials from the state Department of Education that the program will go into effect this July 1, although full implementation will not occur for another year so as to allow a smooth transition.

The Council was told by Education Department personnel that the new program was formed "to provide flexibility in the administration and utilization of funds both at the state and local levels."

States desiring these federal grants are mandated to form such an advisory council and also submit a state plan for Title IV's operation. Kentucky was one of the first states to nominate educators to the committee and should have a plan by June.

The council will advise the Kentucky Department of Education on the state plan as well as policy matters and criteria for funds distribution. The group will evaluate Title IV's programs and submit an annual report of their duties.

When asked about the impact the council would have on the federal project, Dr. Ginger explained, "A lot of input will come from the local level and you will coordinate this."

Three Candidates Take Issue With Proposal To Abolish Lt. Governor

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — While a legislative committee ponders the proposal to abolish the lieutenant governor's office, three candidates for the post have taken issue with it.

The suggestion was offered Monday by House Minority Leader Harold DeMarcus, R-Stanford and, though greeted coolly, was kept alive by the Interim Elections and Constitutional Amendments Committee.

One of the Democratic contenders, said his theme throughout the campaign has been that the lieutenant governor "should be the right hand to the governor."

He also has promised to find more for the lieutenant governor to do.

Besides, Rutherford said in a statement, "Harold DeMarcus knows his party won't elect a lieutenant governor in November, so the next best thing for him to do is propose to abolish the office."

State Sen. William Sullivan, D-Henderson, another candidate, commented:

"One need only look at what has occurred in our nation's capital in order to see why it is necessary for someone to be ready to step in during a time of crisis."

Atty. Gen. Ed Hancock a third candidate, said DeMarcus' method of picking a gubernatorial successor is unfair and unrepresentative of the people.

The Republican's plan is for a governor's party leader in the House to succeed a governor in time of death, resignation or for other reasons — until a special election is called, unless the vacancy occurs in the last year.

"But any representative, and any senator, was elected from only one district in the state," Hancock said.

If the lieutenant governor's office ever is abolished, Hancock said, then another official in the executive branch should be next in line.

Several committee members Monday were openly skeptical when DeMarcus presented his proposal.

But Chairman Lloyd Clapp, D-Wingo, asked colleagues to study the plan and said he would take it up at the next committee meeting.

Some committee members said the lieutenant governor's office was a good training ground for future governors.

Sen. Walter Baker, R-Glasgow, wanted to go in the other direction from DeMarcus. He said the 1976 legislature should restore the lieutenant governor to the chairmanship of the Legislative Research Commission.

Privilege License Change Hits Snag Before Council

A proposal to change the basis for city privilege licenses from the present system to one based on gross receipts of businesses met with stiff opposition at a special session of the Murray City Council Monday night and a motion that a new ordinance be drawn ended up being tabled on a 9-2 vote.

In other business at the meeting, the council:

—voted in favor of allowing Mayor John E. Scott to dispose of eight "excess" city vehicles;

—approved a resolution accepting a $12,000 federal facilities planning grant from the Environmental Protection Agency. The grant will pay 75 per cent of the cost of a county-wide study, which is required by EPA.

—agreed to postpone a decision on repair of a bridge on Cardinal Drive until federal and state officials inspect the bridge for possible disaster relief funds. The inspectors are expected to be in Murray within two to three days.

Opposition to the changes in the privilege license ordinance was voiced immediately after finance committee chairman Jerry Henry moved that the new ordinance be drawn.

"I do not like government intervention in business affairs," councilman Ed Chrisman said. "Businessmen carry the brunt of the expenses of the city and I'm sometimes concerned that that's not right."

Chrisman said that he felt like a tax on gross receipts would be unfair because "gross receipts and profits are not comparable."

Mayor John E. Scott, among others, pointed out that the proposed change in the law was not aimed at increasing tax revenues. Mayor Scott said that the purpose of changing the present privilege license law was to eliminate several inequities (i.e., businesses of the same type paying the same fee regardless of the amount of business they do annually) contained in the present ordinance.

Councilman W. R. Furches said that most businessmen do not object to paying their fair share "but don't want to reveal gross receipts."

Councilman Melvin Henley said of the proposed new ordinance that in his estimation "if anything, it makes the situation worse." He pointed to several things in the proposal, which was originally drawn up by a special citizens' advisory committee in 1970, which he felt were inequitable.

Henley suggested that the council continue with the present ordinance for another year and that the council conduct an in-depth study of the ordinance between now and next year.

Several businessmen from throughout the city were also present at the meeting and those that voiced opinions on the matter were opposed to the change, mainly because they would be required to reveal their gross receipts.

Russell Dowdy, owner of Uncle Jeff's, said "I don't threaten anyone but any attempt you make to get my personal figures will get vigorous opposition...and I would file an injunction to stop such action."

"I have no objection to privilege licenses," Dowdy said, "you can double it tomorrow, but just keep out of my business."

Another businessman present, Jerry Bowden, a partner in Jim Adams IGA, said "I don't deny that I don't pay enough privilege license if you're charging the small grocer the same amount. I think there must be some better way than this gross receipts tax."

Huddleston Says Farm Block Weaker

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — U.S. Sen. Walter "Dee" Huddleston says disintegration of the traditional farm block is making it more difficult to get farm legislation through Congress.

The Kentucky Democrat told a University of Kentucky College of Agriculture audience Monday that the voice of the farmer is becoming weaker in Washington.

For instance, Huddleston said, wheat farmers seem unwilling to support legislation that would favor the tobacco grower or beef producer.

He noted that some senators from wheat states voted against recent Senate action to increase tobacco price supports. "Maybe we could get their attention by doing away with the wheat program," he said.

Adding to the strain on farm bills, he said, is an increasing number of urban members of Congress who have little understanding of agriculture.

County School Board Sets End-Of-Year Dates

The Calloway County School Board heard reports from several school officials concerning the current school year and the strengths and weaknesses of the school program at its regular meeting last night.

Making reports to the board were Calloway County High School principal Ron McAllister, elementary principals Bob Allen, Roy Cothran and Johnny Bohannon; Edward Curd, supervisor of education; and Charlie Lassiter, director of pupil personnel.

The board also amended the school calendar changing the last day of the school year to May 30. Professional day for teachers (no classes) will be on May 29.

Baccalaureate services for Calloway County High School's senior class will be held at the school May 25 and graduation ceremonies will be held May 29.

Also approved was an awards day program at the three elementary schools for May 30.

The board voted to reaffirm its policy of not permitting "last of school trips," such as outings, for classes.

The board also approved requesting bids for the new office building to be located adjacent to Calloway County High School.

Tape Decks Recovered By Police Department

Investigators for the Murray Police Department have recovered several pieces of audio equipment that was reported stolen over the past weekend, department spokesmen said today.

The department has recovered four tape decks which were reported stolen Saturday and Sunday, in addition to two other tape players.

No charges have been filed in the incidents at this time, the spokesman said.

Your Individual Horoscope Frances Drake

FOR WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES
(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

A fine outlook! Day will be good for making profitable deals and arrangements. Knuckle down to steady work, forge ahead with a carefully prepared program.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Certain limitations to your success can be overcome if you take time to redefine your aims and expand operations so as to make a wider use of your talents.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)

Some challenges possible, but face them—unafraid. With the Gemini's ingenuity and foresightedness, you should solve all situations handily.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)

Avoid a tendency toward lethargy. You could make some unusual strides if you put your talents to work. Stress your innate adaptability in unusual situations.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)

You may not blaze any trails now, but that shouldn't stop you from being the dedicated individual you usually are. It will pay, too—with gains of enduring worth.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

A better organized routine could help you to bring things up to the mark you desire, maybe set a new record. Plan your day well.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Skepticism could defeat the fully charged action this day deserves. Believe in your goals—and keep forging ahead.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Stellar influences now favor novel pursuits, imaginative revitalizing of all interests. Display your talents in marketable areas.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

Avoiding being led astray by those who are heedless of consequences, careless of responsibilities. You will face more distractions than you think, so keep up your guard.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

You rarely imitate, preferring to produce in your own way. However, this day will require more attention to others' methods and know-how.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Express your ideas and opinions discreetly but firmly. Don't leave stones unturned which may have gems beneath.

A generally good day—if you cooperate.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

A conservative and prudent attitude will keep you from going overboard through misguided enthusiasm—a tendency now. Be especially cautious in romantic matters.

YOU BORN TODAY are an extremely strong-willed individual; can actually be tyrannical if in a position of authority. Once having curbed this self-insistence on your own way, however, you could become an outstanding business executive or leader in other fields—for the talent is there.

You are a great organizer, progressive in your thinking and (once having gained their cooperation) extremely able in getting others to work with you. Having an adventurous streak, you love to travel and are strongly attracted to art and the theater; could succeed in these fields, too, if properly trained. Other occupations suited to your capabilities: music, the law, literature, education and politics. Birthdate of: Charles Baudelaire, French poet; W.C. Fields, famed comedian.

BIRTHS

CARSON BOY

Phillip Paul is the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Carson of Farmington Route One for their baby boy, weighing seven pounds three ounces, born on Sunday, March 30, at 10:35 a. m. at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

Tickling Fetish: No Laughing Matter

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Ned and I have been married for seven years, and we have one child. Our marriage is far from perfect, but it's a lot better than most.

My biggest problem is that Ned loves to tickle me. Now, please don't laugh, Abby, because it's not funny. I mean, Ned holds me down, and tickles my ribs and the bottoms of my feet until I am screaming and nearly hysterical. Ned also likes to tickle our little girl, and she doesn't like it either.

I've begged Ned to stop this tickling business, but he insists that it's all in fun—that people enjoy laughing, so I shouldn't get angry with him.

What is your opinion?

TICKLED (NEARLY TO DEATH)

DEAR TICKLED: Ned may not know it, but "tickling" is an ancient form of torture. If he continues to tickle you, knowing that you dislike it, he is being intentionally sadistic.

Tickling one beyond his ability to tolerate it may appear to be a "harmless" game—all in fun—but in reality it's downright cruel.

DEAR ABBY: My husband left me three years ago. At first I thought he would come back, but he never did. I was seven months pregnant at the time.

He just took off, and I never heard from him again. To tell you the truth, I don't even know if he's living or dead. And I wouldn't have the foggiest notion of where to look for him.

Now for my big problem: I met a guy who loves me, and wants to marry me and adopt my child. I want to marry him; but how can I get married when I am not even divorced?

All the lawyers around here talk double talk. Isn't there a mail-order divorce I can send for?

OUT IN THE BOONDOCKS

DEAR OUT: Sorry, a mail-order divorce wouldn't be worth the paper it was printed on, so forget it. Look around for a lawyer who talks single, if you want to BE single, which is absolutely necessary before you can get married again.

DEAR ABBY: My fiancé and I are going to be married this June. She will graduate from high school the end of May. We would like to know if it would be proper to send graduation and wedding announcements in the same envelope? It would save time and money.

And can we kill two birds with one stone and send one thank-you note for graduation and wedding gifts?

WONDERING IN N.W.

DEAR WONDERING: The graduation and wedding announcements should be sent separately. And so should the thank-you notes.

DEAR ABBY: Student, Henry County Sr. High, McDonough, Ga., wrote: "I have learned to love according to character, not color."

If the late Martin Luther King, Jr. (himself a Georgian) were alive today, he would have been proud. For he once said: "I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."

ARTHUR H. PRINCE

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Rowlett Home Scene Of Meeting New Concord Homemakers Club

Mrs. Ralph Rowlett opened her home for the March meeting of the New Concord Homemakers Club with Mrs. Charlie Stubblefield, president, presiding.

The fashion newsletter was read by Mrs. Stubblefield who said the look of spring makes fashion news with big shapes challenging the cinched waists. She also named the fabrics used in day and evening wear that will be popular and also including accessories and jewelry to be worn.

Mrs. Rainey Lovins directed the recreation and read a special poem:

"Give me a friend and I'll worry along;
My vision may vanish, my dreams may go wrong;
My wealth I may lose, or my money I may spend,
But I will worry along, if you will give me a friend.
Give me a friend and my youth may depart,
But still I'll be young, in the house of my heart.
Yes I'll go laughing, right on to the end,
Whatever the year, if you give me a friend."

Mrs. Rowlett read the scripture from Luke 24:49 and the group repeated the 23rd Psalm in unison. Mrs. Effie Edwards read the minutes. Lessons were chosen for the coming year.

Refreshments of canapés, mints, creme puffs, and punch were served buffet style by Mrs. Rowlett and Miss Donna Rowlett.

People From Far Away Places Bring Happiness To Young Paul Calhoun

By Virginia Garrett
Eight-year-old Paul Calhoun, of Farmington, Route 1, is like any other youngster that age—he enjoys getting mail. And these past few days, he has been a mighty happy young man, as approximately 3,000 cards and letters have come to him, and are still coming. He also received dozens of small parcels and packages. So, Paul, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lonnie Calhoun, and his three brothers and sisters have been busy helping him open his mail and reading the messages.

It all started when a family friend wrote a letter to the National Enquirer newspaper, including a picture of Paul and his bicycle, saying that he would like to receive mail. The child is suffering from aplastic anemia, and is not able to take part in many of the activities so important to boys that age.

A second grade student at Southwest Calloway County Elementary School, Paul has to visit the University of Kentucky Medical Center at Lexington once a month. The disease from which he is suffering, and which was diagnosed in 1973, causes his body to have no defenses against infections, and the slightest cold can put him to bed. And, as he cannot tolerate many of the medicines usually given to fight infections, it is a struggle for him to come back after each bout. He is on medication regularly and the family's drug bill is unusually large, it is reported.

The Calhouns have lost two other children to the disease, a daughter, Barbara, who died in 1961, at six and a half, and a son, Lonnie, Jr., who was also six and a half at the time of his death in 1962.

And last year, a daughter, Peggie, died of leukemia shortly before she was to have received her degree from Murray State University. The doctors told her parents she possibly had also suffered from aplastic anemia. (The degree was awarded posthumously.)

Paul has three brothers and sisters, Alvin, 17, Connie 15, and Mary 12. Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun are employed at the Bell City Pottery.

Farmington Postmaster C. E. Laird, and the post office's rural carrier, Jimmy Wood, have taken a great interest in the young boy and his mail. Laird said, "I first noticed a marked increase in the volume of mail being received by Paul about two weeks ago. The volume increased daily, and has continued to this week. I have not made an actual daily count, but I estimate that Paul has received an average of 200 to 300 pieces of mail each day. On one day alone, he received 648 pieces of letter mail besides flats, packages and small parcels. The parents told Jimmy Wood, the carrier from this office last Saturday that their son had received more than 3,000 letters and cards besides all the other types of mail mentioned."

Laird continued, "In my 28 years of postal service, I have never seen a response such as this. Although I have not verified this, I am sure Paul has received mail from every state in the Union, several places from Canada and at least one from Puerto Rico."

Many of the messages had encouraging words for the ailing child; others have been on post cards with pictures of interest to an eight-year-old, and others have been letters from parents of children also suffering from the disease.

Mrs. Calhoun said that in the many letters received these past several days, has been one from a couple in Texas whose only son had suffered from the disease, and another was from a family whose son had lived to age twenty-four before the disease proved fatal to him.

This mountain of mail this young Graves Countian has received is a monument to the fact that "people DO care."

Bro. George Gray To Speak At Elm Grove

Bro. George Gray, director of the Jonathan Creek Baptist Assembly, will speak at the Elm Grove Baptist Church on Thursday, April 10, at 6:30 p. m.

Preceding the program, a potluck dinner will be served. The public is invited to attend, a church spokesman said.

Kappa Department To Meet Tonight

Hecht Lackey, Ph. D., is the scheduled speaker at the meeting of the Kappa Department of the Murray Woman's Club to be held tonight (Tuesday) at 7:30 p. m. at the club house.

"Preventive Mental Health Services" will be the subject of the program.

Paul Calhoun, eight year old resident of Farmington Route One, assists rural mail carrier Jimmy Wood with the stacks of mail the youngster has been receiving. His request for letters was printed in a national newspaper.

TIME OUT—Paul Calhoun and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lonnie Calhoun, Farmington Route One, take time out from reading the hundreds of cards and letters that have come to Paul in recent weeks to pose for the photographer. Paul is a second grade student at Southwest Calloway Elementary School.

Town and Country Homemakers Meet At Home Of Geneva Giles

The Town and Country Homemakers Club met in the home of Geneva Giles for the March meeting with the president, Donna Story, asking the fourteen members present to vote on lessons to be presented next year.

Greta Gargus discussed the July Calloway County Fair and members were urged to enter crafts, foods, and clothing in the competition.

Penny Warren presented an interesting and thought-provoking lesson on "Using Our Time." An open discussion was incorporated into the lesson material, and members shared ideas, feelings, and suggestions on how one could better organize the day in order to have time to do things one really wants to do and not accomplish completion of only necessary tasks.

Geneva Giles presented the lesson on "Teneriff Embroidery" showing examples of designs as well as the method of stitching.

Cohostesses Kaye Doran and Jackie Conley served dessert. Other members present were Dee Gant, Jackie Harrison, Janet Hendon, Eva Hopkins, Delores Lawson, Peg Moffett, Carolyn Ramsey, Peggy Allgood, Janelle Smith, and Joyce McKenzie. A guest was Shelia Shaw.

The next meeting will be held April 10 at the home of Penny Warren.

Rattlesnake Roundups

Once again it's rattlesnake roundup time in West Texas, with hunts scheduled in a number of counties in the region.

West Texans, generally speaking, have very little if any love for rattlesnakes, although they have a great deal of respect for them...

Yet, there always has been a certain fascination about rattlesnakes which somehow attracts many persons to them. And the familiar rattle always sounds the alert when persons or animals get too close.

This is why some cities stage annual rattlesnake roundups and like events, usually with large crowds attending and participating...

This is great from the crowd-getting angle...but we still do not like rattlesnakes at close range—rattle or no rattle!

Agree Or Not

This Is A Strange Type Of Primary

By S. C. Van Curon

VAN CURON

By S. C. VAN CURON
FRANKFORT—This is the strangest gubernatorial primary that Kentucky has experienced in many years.

Here is just about seven weeks until election day and incumbent Gov. Julian Carroll, who is seeking a full four year term, has not made an official campaign trail speech to date. Neither has any paid advertising appeared on radio, or television or in the newspapers. He has the advantage of being in office and making appearances and speeches affecting his duties as governor.

His chief opposition is Jefferson County Judge Todd Hollenbach who has been traveling around the state, but so far the usual political excitement at this stage of the game is in lethargy.

Usually the Democratic primary is boiling hot at this time of year. Republicans finished filing at deadline time last Wednesday, but there won't be much excitement in that primary for few are seeking the privilege of opposing the Democrats in November.

Eleven Democrat candidates have filed for the lieutenant governor's post, but at this time only four have received much recognition. They are Secretary of State Thelma Stovall, a veteran office holder in Frankfort; President pro tem of the Senate William Sullivan; former parks commissioner Ewart Johnson and Pike County Judge Wayne Rutherford.

Rutherford has a series of advertisements running on radio and television that are catchy and memorable, and these are drawing comment from the voters, at least from political observers here.

In the races for state offices, there isn't much way to stir political interest or excitement since the duties of these offices deal with services and not policy making. There is little a candidate can promise and little that he can say about his abilities to perform the duties. The established way to campaign for these offices in past years has been to tag along with the gubernatorial candidates and mix with the crowd that comes to hear the gubernatorial candidates.

These candidates also depend a great deal on getting attached to the county campaign leaders for one of the candidates for governor. Organization and name recognition mean more than anything else in these minor constitutional offices.

Miss Mary Louise Foust, state auditor, is also a candidate for the governorship. Robert McCreary Johnson of Louisville is also a candidate.

Contrast this unusually dull campaign with others in the past years.

When Wendell Ford ran against Bert T. Combs last time, he announced just after the 1970 legislature ended its session and Combs did too. By the first of the next year their campaigns were in full gear statewide.

In 1963 when Edward T. Breathitt was opposed by former Gov. A. B. Chandler, Chandler announced during the 1962 legislative session and Breathitt announced Derby Day of that year as the Combs' administration candidate. By March of the next year Chandler's campaign had peaked, and Breathitt's campaign began to gain steam.

When Henry Ward ran for governor, he announced right after the 1966 legislative session and organization began immediately and the candidates hit the campaign trail around the first of the year.

Carroll's campaign headquarters have been open here for several months, but the efforts have seemed to be confined to perfecting county organizations throughout the state and apparently some fund raising.

The strategy of the Carroll organization seems to ask the question: Why get on the campaign trail and give the opponents something to shoot at or talk about? As long as Carroll doesn't raise any issues, his opponents don't seem to be able to raise any against him.

On the Republican side, industrialist Robert Gable doesn't seem to have much opposition in the primary. He ran for the U. S. Senate in the primary against Louie B. Nunn last year and was defeated, but he at least got some name recognition across the state as he did when he was Parks Commissioner under Gov. Nunn.

Unless something happens within the next two or three weeks to create some strong political issues that will interest the public, it looks like Carroll is going to be a shoe-in for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Hogs, Goats, Sheep, And Lambs, 1 Cent Each On Canton Ferry

By M. C. Garrott

John Williams, one of our staff members at the First Baptist Church, has been interested in his findings on the opening of the Egger's Ferry Bridge. John spent some of his earliest years at Golden Pond, between the rivers, and says he was nine years old before he ever went to Canton, four miles east of his home on the Cumberland River.

Among the mementos of his youth, he found the following newspaper account, believed taken from the Murray paper, in which the tolls for the ferry across the Cumberland at Canton was established. Here's what it says:

"At a session of the Trigg County Court last Saturday, the rates for the ferry across the Cumberland River at Canton were fixed not to exceed the following:

"Heavy four-wheel wagons, carriages and coaches, 30 cents for vehicle and load and five cents extra for each horse drawing same; light four-wheel vehicle, 20 cents for vehicle and load and five cents for each horse drawing same; horses, cattle and footmen five cents each; hogs, goats, sheep and lambs, one cent each; hoghead of tobacco, 10 cents; automobiles and load, 30 cents.

"These are the rates as fixed by statutes, and will go into effect at once. Mrs. W. J. Hopson, of near Canton, and Dr. Lacy Hopson, of this place, were recently granted a two-year ferry franchise at Canton."

Remember Jack Baker on WNBC's "Breakfast Show" every morning from the Holiday Inn?

Jack and his family live in Buffalo, New York, now, where he is chairman, or "chairperson" as he puts it, of the Department of Physical Education at the State University of New York at Buffalo. It was good to receive a letter from him the other day.

Jack was one of my good friends at Murray State, where he was an associate professor in the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. He was also in charge of the faculty and staff physical fitness program. The heat jogger, so to speak. He was always after me to jog with him and to follow his physical fitness program. He figured he could win the Nobel Prize for Physical Fitness Achievement if he could shave 40 pounds off of me.

Jack moved to Buffalo last September to assume his new responsibilities, which includes 30 faculty members teaching in three programs: Basic instruction, involving 1,800 students; Professional Preparation, 200 students; and Graduate Studies, with 400 students. His position is a full-time administrative one.

SUNY-Bufferlo has 25,000 students and is the largest of four university centers in the New York State system, which includes 13 state colleges and 38 junior colleges. At the present time, they are building the Buffalo campus to accommodate 50,000 students.

At SUNY-Bufferlo, the physical education department is in the School of Health Education in the Faculty of Health Sciences, he writes, explaining this is unique "in that we are with the medical professions administratively and physically. Some of our faculty have dual appointments in these professional areas."

Jack says he is "working long and hard just trying to keep up," but is still finding time to go house hunting with his wife, Lee, every weekend. They are renting a duplex until their home in Murray sells so they can buy in Euffalo.

"The cost of housing is higher here than in Murray," Jack writes, "but only because most houses are two-story with basements. Utilities also are higher, but food and other living expenses are about the same or lower. Things balance out."

As you would expect, the Bakers also have become involved in winter sports. "Even though it is cold in Buffalo, there is little snow," he said. "We had two feet in 36 hours back in November, but it was gone in three days. Not much snow since that time. We go ice skating frequently at indoor rinks and drive 45 minutes to the ski areas just south of us. I have taken up cross country skiing. It is quite demanding—like running."

It was good hearing from Jack. I think about him often. We got to know each other quite well when he was coach of the Murray swimming team, made up of youngsters from both the Oaks and the Murray Country Clubs. I handled their publicity, and Jack was always faithful to call with the results—regardless of whether they won or lost.

We wish the Bakers the best way up there in that cold Yankee land.

Congressional Record

DYE TO TRAP DIESEL FUEL TAX EVADERS

SENATOR CHARLES H. PERCY (Ill.) "... I call up amendment No. 198. The amendment requires that No. 1 and No. 2 heating fuel oil be colored with an oil soluble dye to deter tax fraud. ...

"Under existing law, diesel fuel is taxed at an average rate of 12 cents a gallon—4 cents by the Federal Government and an average of 8 cents by the States. An extensive black market has developed in which untaxed heating oil is used as diesel fuel, defrauding both the Federal Government and every State in the Union. A trucking trade publication, the FLEET OWNER, estimates that this illegal practice is costing more than $1 billion a year in State and Federal taxes. That is a trucking trade publication that makes that estimate. As a result of this black market, heating oil becomes more scarce to those who depend on this type of fuel. ... I ask unanimous consent that an article by Bernie Swart... be printed in the Record. ... (Excerpts follow):

Lost $100 Million In Diesel Fuel Taxes

This figure may go as high as $1 billion a year, according to Albert T. Stoessel, an Iowa oil dealer and past president of the Iowa Petroleum Association. Stoessel estimates his State alone is losing more than $50 million a year in fuel taxes.

The taxes are lost according to Stoessel, when Number two heating oil is substituted for diesel fuel. The two fuels are almost identical in chemical composition, Stoessel said, although diesel fuel is heavily taxed while home heating fuel is not. Stoessel told the Iowa Petroleum Council that one major refinery "told its dealers to stop selling fuel oil to truckers for use as diesel fuel."

Don Briggs, Iowa director of revenues, says his department is conducting a three-year auditing program of trucking operations in the State. By the end of last spring, he said, 140 carriers had been audited, and each one ended up paying an average of $1,200 in additional taxes.

FBI agents, working on a hijacking case, noticed a heating oil delivery truck making "midnight" deliveries to a truck stop. The truck stop had sold between 500,000 and 1.5 million gal. of heating oil to unsuspecting truckers. The station operator was convicted and fine $70,000.

SENATOR PERCY: "... Canada which has enacted (diesel fuel oil laws) have increased their tax yields in this area by 55 percent. ...

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

Diesel fuel tax evaders shift the tax burden to the law abiding truckers.

Breaking Ground.....

.....Commentary On Issues And Events

Written By Gary Huddleston
Ky. Farm Bureau Federation

The impact of much-heralded tax rebates will be minimal compared to the potential benefits to many Kentucky families from proposed changes in federal estate tax laws.

A bill has been introduced in Congress for the second year in a row by Rep. Omar Burleson, a Texas Democrat, which would modernize exemption levels and provide relief for family members who inherit farm or other property. Cosponsors are being added to the bill, and other similar measures have been introduced in both the House and Senate.

Out-of-date exemptions from federal taxes on estates are resulting in prohibitive tax bills to many families. Farmers are particularly hard-hit, and surviving sons and daughters are frequently forced to sell farmland just to get enough cash to pay estate taxes.

Such a situation is unfair to farm families who wish to continue farming, and is resulting in the removal of farmland from agricultural production. Family farms are being broken up and farmers chased out of their chosen occupation as a result of tax laws which have remained virtually unchanged since before the end of World War II.

The Burleson bill provides for at least three changes in the levying of estate taxes which could have substantial impact on a family's ability to, in effect, afford an inheritance.

The changes are:

—Raising the specific exemption (exemption which applies to all estates) from the current level of $60,000 to $200,000. The $60,000 figure was written into the tax law in 1942, when the consumer price index was 48.8. In December 1974, the index was 155.4, reflecting the tremendous impact of inflation. Farmland has gone up in value substantially, placing many farm estates in higher tax brackets.

—Increase in the marital deduction from 50 per cent of the adjusted gross estate (estate after debts and expenses are paid), to 100,000, plus 50 per cent of the adjusted gross estate. The marital deduction is applicable when property passes to a surviving spouse.

—A provision for assessing property for purposes of estate taxes on the basis of current use, rather than for higher potential use. Currently, federal appraisers list property, including farmland, for its highest potential value, when it is included in an estate. Thus, even if surviving members of a family wish to continue farming a tract of land, they may have to pay estate taxes on that land based on its potential for development or sale.

While all these changes are complex, and not easily understood by anyone who has never been involved in settling an estate, their future financial impact on

Let's Stay Well

Divorce Rate Significant

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

BLASINGAME

The divorce rate is at a record high and increasing. The effects on society, especially the American family, are complex and far-reaching.

The National Center for Health Statistics estimates that 970,000 divorces took place in the United States in 1974, about a 6 per cent increase over 1973. During 1975, it is anticipated that more than 1 million couples will get divorces.

While the divorce rate took an upswing following World War II, divorces were lowest in 1958—about 8.9 divorces per 1,000 married couples. Since then the rate has increased rapidly, and no showing is in sight. At the same time, marriages are on the decline (there were 2,234,000 in 1974).

About 80 per cent of the partners marry again after divorce.

Some of the causes for divorces are chronic dissatisfaction between the husband and wife, sexual incompatibility (often involves more than the sex act), marriages at early ages, the drive for more rights for women, financial stress and the possibility of each party working and having more adequate income to survive separately, and the diminishing inhibition related to religious beliefs.

Major trauma often hits the children in a divorced family. More than 10 million children are now living with only one parent, and two-thirds of these do so as the result of divorces.

While the majority of juvenile delinquents come from homes with two parents, divorce is thought to be a significant contributing factor. Measured by arrests, delinquency increased 144 per cent from 1960 to 1973.

Divorces may be damaging the beneficial influences of the family. Wholesome homelife, with its guidance, affection and security, may be lessening, with a resultant diminution of parental instruction, support and discipline.

The financial costs of a divorce, beyond sizable legal fees, are often huge and use up resources which could be directed to better ends—education, cultural experiences, travel and economic independence.

The rise in divorces may mirror a change in values affecting society far beyond its homes.

Q Mrs. B.I. wonders if it is really true that a person can be troubled by "restless legs."

A The restless leg syndrome, first described in 1945, has been observed in patients by many physicians. The sensations come after the limbs, usually the lower limbs, have been at rest for a while. The muscles may jerk, and the person may have an irresistible urge to "move the limbs. Relief occurs by getting up and moving around. The symptoms may recur when the patient returns to bed to try again to rest. The syndrome often results in insomnia. Careful studies may reveal some nerve or muscle abnormalities. A person who has "restless legs" should see a physician.

Carter Celebrates His Birthday Ahead Of Time

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Today Gary Carter is a man. Monday night he was Super-

The rookie catcher-outfielder of the Montreal Expos turned 21 today after throwing a party for himself at the expense of the St. Louis Cardinals. He smacked two singles and a three-run homer, driving in four runs as the Expos opened the baseball season with an 8-4 triumph over Bob Gibson and the Cards.

In other National League openers, the Cincinnati Reds edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1 in 14 innings and the Houston Astros trimmed the Atlanta Braves 6-2.

The only American League game saw Nolan Ryan fire a three-hitter, striking out 12, while the California Angels rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth to edge the Kansas City Royals 3-2.

With outfielders Bob Bailey and Rich Coggins sidelined, the Expos used rookie Tony Scott in left field and Carter, the No. 1 catcher in the minor leagues last year, in right. Scott's two-out, two-run double in the eighth inning off Bob Gibson gave the Expos a 5-4 lead and Carter, who nicked Gibson for a run-scoring single in the first, wrapped it up in the ninth with his three-run homer off a high fast ball from Elias Sosa.

"I'll tell you this was a heck of a birthday present," said Carter, who hit .407 in nine games at the end of last season, batted .321 in spring training and is hitting a cool .750 this year... albeit with 161 games left.

Reds 2, Dodgers 1
Cincinnati, which finished four games behind Los Angeles in the NL West last year, edged the Dodgers when Cesar Geronimo raced home from third base on pinch hitter George Foster's infield single off knuckleballer Charlie Hough with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

The Dodgers took a 1-0 lead in the fourth when Don Gullett issued consecutive walks to Jimmy Wynn and Ferguson. Steve Mingori replaced Steve Busby and the Angels loaded the bases on a walk to Morris Nettles and Mickey Rivers' bunt single. Tommy Harper drove in the tying run with a bloop single off Doug Bird and the winner came home on Bruce Bochte's sacrifice fly.

Ryan struck out more than 10 batters for the 68th time in his career. He fanned designated hitter Harmon Killebrew four times. John Mayberry's sixth-inning homer had given Kansas City a 2-1 lead.

apparently fled out to end the inning. But plate umpire Doug Harvey ruled Correll's glove had interfered with May's bat. Cliff Johnson's double then tied the score and Cruz then clubbed his three-run shot over the right-field fence.

Angels 3, Royals 2
Rudy Meoli opened the ninth with a pinch single, California's first hit since the third inning. Steve Mingori replaced Steve Busby and the Angels loaded the bases on a walk to Morris Nettles and Mickey Rivers' bunt single. Tommy Harper drove in the tying run with a bloop single off Doug Bird and the winner came home on Bruce Bochte's sacrifice fly.

Ryan struck out more than 10 batters for the 68th time in his career. He fanned designated hitter Harmon Killebrew four times. John Mayberry's sixth-inning homer had given Kansas City a 2-1 lead.

Murray Girl Netters Beat Hopkinsville 9-0

The Murray High girls tennis team remained undefeated as they romped to an easy 9-0 win in a road match Monday afternoon over Hopkinsville.

The Murray girls won all six singles matches and swept the doubles play in recording their second win of the season.

Jill Austin, a freshman and the only member of the team who is actually in high school, easily won her match at number one defeating La Wana Edwards 8-2. All of the matches were played in pro sets.

At number two, seventh grader Kathy Outland recorded a shutout win over Sandy Bruce, 8-0.

Robyn Burke, also a seventh grader, had the closest match of the day. However, it was still an easy win as she defeated Pam Hughes of Hopkinsville 8-3.

Candy Jackson, a sixth grader and the youngest member of the Tigers, won 8-2 at number four over Susannah Riley. At number five, seventh grader Carol Dick won 8-2 over Mandy Kissner while at number six, Catherine Dick, also a seventh grader, defeated Beth Cook 8-1.

The number one doubles found Austin-Outland winning 8-1 over Edwards-Hughes, Burke-Jackson won 8-2 at number two over Riley-Bruce and at number three, the Dick Twins won 8-1 over Kissner-Cook.

The girls will play again next Tuesday when they host Marshall County.

The Tiger boys will have the rest of the week off and will not play again until next Tuesday when they also host the Marshalls.

"SPRING HAS SPRUNG" BE CAREFUL!

Yes, those April showers that bring spring flowers can also bring a great deal of misery to those many people who may suffer from certain allergies. It can be especially difficult for those who do not know what it is that causes their problems.

If you ever experience such problems, don't suffer meaninglessly. There are many tests that can be done to find out to what you may be allergic. An appointment with a physician with specialized training (allergist) would be a first step for you to take.

Knicks And Rockets Square Off In NBA Playoff Opener

By The Associated Press
The National Basketball Association playoff wars begin tonight with opening shots being fired on two fronts.

Lone Oak Gets Win Over Tiger Golfers Monday

By LEE STEWART
The Murray High golf team suffered its first defeat of the season Monday afternoon, losing to the Lone Oak Purple Flash at the Rolling Hills Country Club in Paducah.

The Tigers were edged by eight strokes as they carded a 159 while the Flash posted a 151. The loss brings the Tigers to 2-1 for the season.

Tiger senior Tim Philpot captured medalist honors with an even-par 35. Other scores for MHS were: Lee Stewart 38, Lynn Sullivan 42, Howard Boone 44 and Gary Sullivan 46. Lone Oak was led by Kenny Perry's 36. Darryle Mulien birdied the last two holes as he fired a 38. Rounding out the scoring for the Flash were John Paul Felker 38, Jim Day 39 and Tim Doyle 43.

The victory improves the Flash record to 4-0. Philpot got off to a fast start as he birdied the second and third holes with putts of 35 and six feet respectively. His only mishap came when he three-putted the fifth for a double bogey.

He needed only 14 putts to complete his round. Coach Preston Holland's Tigers will host Calloway County this afternoon at the Murray Country Club.

Winners of these first-round, three-game series will have the dubious distinction of facing the teams with the best records in each of their divisions.

By virtue of their records, the Boston Celtics of the Eastern Conference and the Golden State Warriors of the West have drawn first-round byes and will await opening-round winners in the conference semifinals.

In other playoff action, the Chicago Bulls will host the Kansas City-Omaha Kings Wednesday night in Chicago in the opening of a seven-game Western Conference semifinal series. On Thursday night, the start of an Eastern Conference semifinal series will take place in Landover, Md., where the Washington Bullets will host the Buffalo Braves.

The Knicks took their regular season series 3-1 from the Rockets, but Houston Coach John Egan still thinks he has an advantage. Two of the three games will be played at Houston, he points out.

"I think the home court is the best thing we have going for us," says an optimistic Egan. "In a short series, it could make the difference. I don't think it makes any difference in a seven-game series."

But if the Rockets have the home court edge, the Knicks have the edge in experience. They've been in these playoffs nine straight years — even if they did squeeze in this time with a sub-par 40-42 record in the Atlantic Division.

Confidence — and lack of it — appears to be the key in the Detroit-Seattle series. Seattle seems to have it. Detroit doesn't.

"I don't think we're on that confidence level we were on when we were going well," notes Detroit star Bob Lanier. "Plus, as of last month, we've been only playing six or seven men. I don't think you can go anywhere in the playoffs without any depth."

On the other hand, the Super-Sonics have the confidence of their coach.

"I'm confident," says Bill Russell, who had lots of playoff days as the star of the Boston Celtics. "I did like the way we ended our season. If Tommy (center Tom Burleson) plays well and Spencer (forward Spencer Haywood) is good, we can really be tough up front against Detroit."

PRESENTED SADDLE—Bill Atkins, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Atkins of Hazel Route 2, was presented a new trophy saddle for the year 1974-75 for his outstanding performance in showing game horses. He competed in poles, barrels, speed and figure eight at the C & D Stables in Goodlettsville, Tenn. He is a sophomore at Calloway County High School and a member of the New Providence Riding Club.

An AP Sports Analysis

Seems That Everybody Is Playing In Playoffs

By CRAIG AMMERMAN
AP Sports Writer

When a team rejoices because it made the post-season playoffs with a losing record, it may be time to wonder if professional sports has forsaken the principle of winning in a mad search for the almighty dollar.

Playoffs began this week in the four basketball and hockey leagues. Anyone having a difficult time making sense out of what is going on is excused. It's enough to befuddle a perfectly sensible computer.

For one thing, 38 of the 60 teams in the four leagues have played an 80-game schedule and are still playing. Eight of those championship teams do not have winning records.

The Memphis Sounds carried a 27-57 record into the ABA playoffs, meaning they lost 68 per cent of the time and still qualified for a shot at the "championship."

The reason for all this? Money. With spiraling salaries, the basketball and hockey leagues have become a collection of teams whose bottom line is colored red on the year-end report. One way to ease the financial pain is to play more games and call them championships.

So, the four leagues played their marathon schedules, eliminated 37 per cent of the teams and now begin playoffs that could easily require the winners to play another 20-plus games. In the National Hockey League, the Stanley Cup winner could be in 24 playoff games, the last one on May 29.

"I agree it's ridiculous," said one general manager of a professional basketball team. "But, with our costs out of sight, we've got to find new revenues."

It seems those new revenues are destined to be the fans' ticket prices, provided the leagues are able to fan enough interest in the early stages of this competition when mismatches are obvious.

If the leagues are successful in selling their expanded playoff formats, they might devise some new schemes in future years.

They might declare that the top half of, say, a 16-team league automatically qualifies for the playoffs after the 80-game schedule. The bottom eight teams would meet in four championship series to determine the remainder of a 12-team playoff.

Then, the team with the oldest coach, the one with the tallest trainer and the one with the shortest guards would draw playoff byes, and the other nine teams would meet in a round robin. Or ...

Nuggets Overcome 10-Point Deficit To Slip Past Stars

By JOHN MOSSMAN
AP Sports Writer

DENVER (AP) — The Denver Nuggets, overcoming a 10-point deficit in the final quarter on the play of forward Bobby Jones and guards Mack Calvin and Ralph Simpson, have moved into a commanding position in their American Basketball Association playoff series with Utah.

The Nuggets' 126-120 triumph Monday night gave them a 2-0 edge in their best-of-seven Western Division series. The third and fourth games will be played in Salt Lake City Wednesday and Friday.

In the only other ABA playoff game Monday night, the Indiana Pacers turned back the San Antonio Spurs 98-93 to take a 2-0 lead in their best-of-7 first-round series.

"We're 2-0, that's a hell of an advantage," Denver Coach Larry Brown said. "But we can't take anything for granted. Utah came in here and gave us a good game tonight. And the Stars always play well at home."

The Western Division champions pulled out the triumph over the fourth-place Stars despite falling behind 101-91 early in the final period.

Utah guard John Roche paced Utah's 42-point third quarter, during which the Stars rebounded from a 56-55 half-time deficit to lead 97-89 at the end of the period. Roche scored seven straight points to put Utah on top 80-78, then followed a minute later with a three-point play for an 85-80 lead.

Ron Boone's layup barely a minute into the final period gave Utah its 10-point advantage.

Denver began chipping away, however, and after Byron Beck had scored four of six straight Denver points, the Utah lead was just 105-103 with 8:15 left.

Randy Denton's three baskets up close kept the Stars on top 115-112, but Calvin's layup a minute later put the Nuggets ahead 116-115 for the first time in the quarter.

After Roche's two free throws tied it at 118-118 with 2:04 left, Jones, Denver's talented rookie, hit two consecutive baskets. Calvin scored on a layup following a block by Simpson, and Simpson hit a jumper for a 126-118 lead with 31 seconds left.

At San Antonio, George McGinnis collected 30 points in the second half to trigger Indiana's victory over San Antonio. He scored only three points before the intermission and wound up with 33.

"I felt I had embarrassed myself and my teammates," McGinnis said of the first half. "The guys look to me for leadership and I played like a high school player."

McGinnis won the regular season scoring title and was named co-most valuable player with Julius Erving of the New York Nets.

The series now shifts to Indianapolis for the next two games.

The only ABA playoff game scheduled tonight is Memphis at Kentucky in the second game of their series. The Colonels hold a 1-0 edge.

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. (AP) — James McAfee of Trumbull, Conn., assistant editor of Golf Digest, shot a three-over-par 75 Monday to win the 22nd annual golf tournament of the Golf Writers' Association of America.

Defending champion Steve Kelly of the Springfield (Mass.) Daily News was one stroke behind. Parker Smith, a contributing editor of Golf Magazine, was third.

Hall Of Fame

BOSTON (AP) — Robert Whelan of Framingham, Mass., and Randolph Cross of Atlanta will be inducted into the Boston University Varsity Club Hall of Fame on April 26, the school has announced.

Whelan was an outstanding BU football player in the late 1940s; and Cross is one of the Terriers' all-time leading basketball scorers and rebounders.

Salukis Pound Murray 8-1, 'Breds Now 31-5

Host Southern Illinois University struck for all the runs they needed in the first inning Monday at Abe Martin Field in Carbondale as the Salukis belted Murray State 8-1. The Salukis used three singles and a sacrifice fly for a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning and moved to an early 2-0 lead.

Sophomore Dana Pearson of Cobden, Ill., started on the hill for the Thoroughbreds and went the distance, settling down and pitching shutout ball over the last four innings.

Murray threatened in the top of the first as Richie White started the game with a single.

Then after one man had been retired, rightfielder John Siemanowski ripped a single and Murray had men on at first and third.

However the frame ended when the Saluki first baseman made a diving stab of a shot off the bat of Leon Wurth and stepped on the bag for an inning-ending doubleplay.

In the home half of the second, after two men had already been retired, the Salukis struck for three more runs. SIU added a single tally in the third and two more in the fourth.

Murray's only run of the game came in the fourth inning when second-baseman Jack Perconte hit a rope just off the line in rightfield, clearing the 340-foot sign and breaking up the shutout.

Murray hit the ball well. Sophomore first baseman Don Walker belted two drives that would have been homers in Reagan Field.

Shortstop Leon Wurth who made several outstanding fielding plays in the game for the 'Breds, paced the six-hit attack with a pair of base knocks.

White, Perconte, Siemanowski and David Hughes all had a hit apiece.

The Salukis go to 14-6-1 for the season while Murray now stands at 31-5.

SIU opens a four-game homestand today against Louisville while the Thoroughbreds will try once again to play Vanderbilt at Reagan Field on Wednesday. The single contest is slated to begin at 3 p.m.

However, in the past two years, Murray was to have played Vandy at Reagan Field and each time the Commodores cancelled out at the last minute.

Murray Rated 13th Best In United States

Murray State University, enjoying one of its most successful baseball seasons in the history of the school, has moved into the nation's top 20 baseball teams.

In a poll of coaches by United Press International, the Thoroughbreds were ranked 13th in the nation.

The top-ranked team in the country is South Alabama, a team Murray defeated on the road last year in the season-opener.

Murray State was ranked as high as 14th last season in the collegiate baseball poll by one of the major sports magazines.

Currently, the Thoroughbreds are 31-5 for the season and will be playing at home at 3 p.m. Wednesday against Vanderbilt.

Memphis State Hands Racer Net Team Loss

By ROSS BOLING

If there's anything Bennie Purcell hates worse than seeing his Murray State Racers lose a tennis match, it's seeing them lose a tennis match to his arch-rival and close friend, Coach Tommy Buford and his Memphis State Tigers.

That's why last night's 6-3 loss to the Tigers, which dropped Murray's seasonal record to 2-9, must have been an especially bitter pill for him to swallow.

The loss was in fact Murray's second to the Tigers this year. They beat the Racers convincingly earlier this year in Memphis.

Last night's contest offered some encouraging differences, however. Murray lost a total of three three-set matches which quite easily could have gone the other way and conceivably, turned the match around.

Number one Mike Owen, in what was the most captivating match of the evening and with his father Archie looking on, lost a thrilling grudge battle to Memphis State's Phil Chamberlain.

Owen had been priming for last night's rematch with Chamberlain who had beaten him in their first encounter in Memphis and he came ex-cruciatingly close to pulling it off.

Having split sets, Owen fought his way to a 3-1 lead in the third set tie-breaker whereupon Chamberlain rallied to win four straight points and the match, 4-6 6-2 7-6.

Number six Jim Lukeman likewise lost a heartbreaker to Bob Fender, 6-2 6-7 6-1 and number two doubles pair Tom Lie and Del Purcell lost a three-setter against Memphis State's Bob Arvin and Scott Brown, 1-6 6-3 6-1.

All of which left Coach Purcell to muse on what easily might have been.

"I think if Mike and Jim could've pulled through, the whole complexion of the match would've changed. Two victories there would have tied the match at 3-3 going in to the doubles and it's possible that we could've won 3-4 instead of losing 6-3."

Purcell did see some cause for hope however.

"We did better this time than at Memphis and I was particularly pleased with Craig (Mangold) and Lukeman's play in doubles."

The number three pair beat Memphis' Fender and Danny Meeks, 6-4 2-6 6-4, in a match that lasted until nearly eleven o'clock and which almost ended prematurely when MSU security guards, making their nightly ten o'clock rounds, began turning off the tennis lights.

The security men were incredulous when they were told that a varsity tennis match was being played at that hour. Coach Purcell spent twenty minutes convincing them of it.

What did you say to convince them Coach?

"I ended up saying that if they turned them off and locked the switchbox, I would just use my key and turn them back on again."

In the other matches, Memphis State's Keith West breezed by Murray's number two Ross Boling, 6-2 6-3 and Memphis' Jim Kallenberger subdued number three Tom Lie 7-5 6-2.

Number four Del Purcell recorded Murray's lone singles victory with an impressive win over Brown, 6-2 6-2. The rapidly improving Mangold dropped a 6-2 6-2 decision to Memphis' Meeks which was much closer match than the scores would suggest.

The Racers took two of the three doubles matches which was perhaps Murray's finest doubles performance so far this year. Besides Lukeman and Mangold's win, the number one tandem of Owen and Boling used the lob and series of incredible defensive retrievers to perfection in scoring a highly-impressive win over West and Kallenberger, 7-6 7-5.

The Racers take a northerly swing this weekend to challenge powerful UK at Lexington and go for their first OVC win of the season against Eastern Kentucky and Morehead at Richmond.

Laker Golfers Lose Match To Marshall County

By ANTHONY FIKKE

The Calloway County golf team dropped its second match of the season Monday afternoon, losing to Marshall County.

The Lakers were defeated by a tally of 180-188 on a waterlogged Calvert City Golf and Country Club course.

Kevin D'Angelo was apparently unbothered by the lightning-fast, bent-grass greens as he fired in a 41 to lead the Lakers. Bobby Fike carded a 47 and Joe Janeczek shot 49. Anthony Fike suffered a 51 while Mike Howard rounded out the scoring with a 52.

For Marshall County, Ken Dossett shot a 43 while Danny Ham carded a 44.

Other scorers for Marshall were Williamson 46, Cowan 47 and Darnell 52.

The Lakers, coached by Larry Paschall, will meet Murray High this afternoon at the Murray Country Club.

The loss Monday leaves the Lakers' season record at 0-2.

Casey To Sign At Murray Or UK

The day is all but over. Wednesday is the first day for signing national basketball letters of intent.

At the present time, Murray State University is on a full-speed ahead course in basketball recruiting. And it appears the Racers are headed toward a highly-successful recruiting year.

Murray has not signed anyone thus far to a conference letter, contrary to rumors which are floating around town. A conference letter simply binds that athlete to the school in that conference and if he so chooses, he can transfer to another school without any problems.

So Wednesday morning, Coach Fred Overton and assistant coach Jim Calvin will be in several different places. And with them, they'll have a total of six national letters, which hopefully will be signed by Thursday.

"We'd like to sign everyone on Wednesday and get it over with," Calvin said.

"Of course we'll run into some kids who will want to wait a couple of days but I'd really much rather sign them early."

This past weekend, three prospects were in town. They included Eddie Williams of Mayfield, Dwane Casey of Union County and Victor Jordan of Christian County.

Casey and Jordan are both First-Team All-Staters and high school All-Americans. Williams is a Second-Team All-State selection.

Casey has narrowed his choice of schools to two. He told me Saturday he will sign either Wednesday or Thursday with Murray State or with the University of Kentucky.

A super guard with a super attitude and super talent, the 6-3 Casey is the only player in the state UK is currently seeking. If Murray should sign Casey, it would be a great recruiting victory.

And if Murray should sign Casey, it would be a good step in perhaps influencing Williams or Jordan, or perhaps even both, to sign at Murray. Williams is being heavily recruited by Austin Peay and the race for him has probably narrowed down to Murray or the Governors.

It will be sometime late Wednesday before Overton really knows who he has signed.

Who else?

The coaching staff feels it has a good chance of grabbing Lawrence Demic, a 6-8 center from Gary, Ind. Demic, without a doubt, is the top big man on the list the Racers are looking at.

Also high on the list are 6-11 center Maurice Drinks of Fort Wayne, 6-10 Chester Giles of Chicago, 6-10 Larry Harris of Baltimore, 6-10 Dennis Tindle of McCreary County, 6-9 Lloyd Terry of Gary, and 6-8 Earner Calhoun Mays of Gary.

Forwards include Jarvis Williams of Houston, Carl McPhee of Hammond, Rick Davis of Pompano Beach, Fla.; John Randall of Hammond, and several other top-notch players.

Guards, besides the ones already mentioned, include Jimmy Webb, who is apparently leaving the University of Cincinnati, Charles Hicks of Gary, Brian Banks of Hammond, Paul Smith of Shelby County, Karl Gooden of Houston, Todd Jones of Springfield, Ohio, Don Fucci of Lexington, Terry Creek, Terry Crosby of Toledo, and Rusty Miller of Swiss City, Ind.

Watch the sports section in the Murray Ledger & Times later this week and we'll have some kind of news on recruiting. And hopefully, it will be good news.

Tiger Girl Netters

There's probably no way of finding out but the Murray High girls tennis team may be the youngest in the country.

Jill Austin, who plays the number one singles, is a freshman. Four others are seventh graders and one, Candy Jackson, is just in the sixth grade.

So with Murray getting all sorts of national publicity in the past month or two, it looks like we'll be in store for a little more later on. I talked with Associated Press this morning and they seemed very interested and thought several major sports publications might be interested in a feature story on the Tiger girls.

Poor Teams All Get Chance To Improve During Playoffs

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Sports Writer

The big, bad Boston Bruins, don't scare too many people anymore and the rough, tough Chicago Black Hawks aren't bullies any longer. But the two teams tangle in a first-round playoff series that will end a dismal season for one club and improve a poor season for the other.

"I don't think anyone is picking us to win," said Boston's Bobby Orr, "not our fans, the press or maybe even some of our parents. They don't think we'll go much further than the first round, but when we get to the finals maybe we can talk about it."

"We didn't win a crucial game all year," said Chicago Coach Billy Reay. "We'll have a chance to prove differently in the playoffs."

With 12 of the 18 National Hockey League teams entering a rather non-discriminating playoff picture, teams which were disappointing during the regular season have a chance for atonement.

The Bruins and Black Hawks get their second chance in Boston when the NHL's second season starts tonight with four best-of-three series. Other first-round pairings have the New York Rangers playing host to their suburban rivals, the New York Islanders; the St. Louis Blues meeting the Penguins in Pittsburgh, and the Toronto Maple Leafs playing the Kings in Los Angeles.

The Black Hawks, who finished a humiliating third in Division 2 to a pair of expansion clubs which weren't around when Chicago won its last Stanley Cup in 1961, are looking to the playoffs to restore some lost pride.

"It has been a disappointing season for all of us," said Chicago goalie Tony Esposito, who will be facing shots from his brother Phil, the second-leading scorer in the NHL this year. "We didn't finish first and that's what hurts."

If the Hawks aren't ready, they won't be around very long. The Bruins will see to that. Boston, which finished 19 points behind Division 4-leading Buffalo, also is trying to skate away from a disappointing regular season.

The New York Rangers have been getting into, then getting out of the playoffs each of the last eight years. They haven't won the Stanley Cup since 1940 and haven't been overly impressive this year.

The third-year Islanders, in the playoffs for the first time, had never beaten the Rangers at Madison Square Garden until they won 6-4 there Sunday night.

Pittsburgh has been running hot and cold this year — hot on home ice and very cold away from home cooking. Since the Penguins are scheduled to play two of the best-of-three series in Pittsburgh, they would seem to have an advantage.

The Penguins assembled a 25-10 record at home this season and were 12-23-5 on the road. St. Louis is also better off on familiar ice, sporting 23-13-4 marks at home, compared to 12-18-10 on the road.

The Kings skated to their best record ever this season, posting marks of 42-17-21. Coach Bob Pulford acknowledged that his team hasn't played well recently, recording just six victories in the team's last 14 games, but said, "I think we'll be a different team in the playoffs. This team, when motivated, plays very well."

Blades Win What May Have Been Last Ever

BALTIMORE (AP) — Johnny Wilson, the Baltimore Blades' coach and general manager, says he's "real proud to see a last-place team get a standing ovation" from a hometown crowd at the conclusion of its World Hockey Association season.

But the applause Monday night may be the last applause the Blades ever get.

Baltimore concluded its season with a 4-2 triumph over the first-place Houston Aeros. The victory marked the third in the last six games for the Blades, which finished with a record of 21-53-4, or 46 total points, the worst in the WHA.

Houston, which will play Cleveland Thursday in the first round of the WHA playoffs, finished the regular season at 53-26-0, for 106 points.

The WHA playoffs open tonight with Phoenix facing Quebec. On Wednesday, Minnesota will meet New England and San Diego will play Toronto.

The end of the Blades' 17-game home season here, after coming from Michigan at the end of January, leaves their future in doubt. WHA officials have given the team until April 15 to come up with local owners or face extinction.

Skip Feldman, Blades' vice president, said following Monday night's game a decision will be made "within the next two weeks or sooner" on the team's ownership dilemma.

Feldman said he has an offer in the works and characterized the deal as "better than 50-50" that the team will be purchased by local owners for the next season.

At the box office the Blades attracted 61,978 fans — averaging 3,514 a game, a figure WHA officials said they're concerned about.

Despite their loss, the Houston Aeros were a decidedly jubilant team. Coach Bill Dineen said he was just glad to get through the last game before the playoffs without an injury. "There's always the fear that a key player will be hurt just before the playoffs."

When asked how he thinks his team will do against the Crusaders, Dineen said: "We have a 5-1 record this season against Cleveland."

Gordie Howe, Houston's 47-year-old hockey patriarch, restated following the game this will be his final full year of professional hockey action.

Sign European Stars

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Minutemen of the North American Soccer League have signed four European recruits.

The recruits are Geoff Davies and Stephen Melleved of Great Britain, Bernd Stobek and Rainer Hollasch of Germany.

The Minutemen open their NASL season April 25 with an exhibition game against Philadelphia at Bethlehem, Pa.

Robinson In Murray

Jim D. Robinson, a candidate for attorney general in the May primary, brought his campaign to Murray today.

Robinson, 35, began his campaign in his native Western Kentucky after resigning his position as the assistant attorney general for the Department of Transportation.

Summarizing his campaign, Robinson said, "I'm making three promises I know I can keep — to be honest in the appraisal of legal questions, to administer the office of the attorney general efficiently and to fulfill a need for two-way communication with the people of Kentucky and myself as attorney general."

Robinson is also an accomplished farmer, bee keeper and sportsman.

Members of the Young Adults Farmer Class, their wives, and guests, were entertained with a dinner at Triangle Inn on Monday, April 7, at seven p. m. by the Peoples Bank of Murray, Ky., Inc.

Max Hughes, class president, presided, and Dan Shipley, class member, gave the invocation. Other officers this year were Carves Paschall, vice-president, and Billy Adams, secretary.

New officers elected for the coming year were Carves Paschall, president, Billy Adams, vice-president, and Sherrill Gargus, secretary.

Ray Brownfield, vice-president of the bank, presided at the meeting and welcomed the members and guests. Other officials of the bank present and making brief remarks were William M. Boyd, president, Harvey Ellis, senior vice-president, and H. Glenn Doran, chief executive officer and chairman of the board.

W. H. Brooks, teacher of the class which now meets at the Murray Area Vocational School, spoke of the class work and expressed appreciation to the Peoples Bank for sponsoring the dinner. James Lawson, principal of the Vocational School, spoke briefly at the dinner.

Gifts were presented by the bank to the members, their wives, and guests.

Guests and officials present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Glenn Doran, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burken.

Class members are Billy Adams, Henry Armstrong,

SPECIAL SPEAKERS

Rev. and Mrs. George B. Garden, retired missionaries to India now living in Nashville, Tenn., will speak at the meeting of the Lynn Grove United Methodist Church Women to be held Wednesday, April 9, at 9:30 a. m. at the Lynn Grove-Goshen parsonage, 808 Minerva Place, Murray.

WOW CAMP

Camp 592 of the Woodmen of the World will meet Thursday, April 10, at seven p. m. at the Woodmen Hall, according to Trellis Seaford, president.

Opponents Of ERA Ask State Legislators To Reverse Vote

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Opponents of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) for women have asked Kentucky legislators to reverse the approval they gave it three years ago.

A group of women from western Kentucky asked the Interim Legislative Committee on Elections and Constitutional Amendments Monday to recommend such action. The committee lacked a quorum and so could take no action.

And on another matter, some committee members talked of censuring the Registry of Election Finance for refusing to enforce part of a 1974 election-finance law.

The women opposing the ERA argued it would eliminate protective labor laws for women, no longer allow Congress to exempt them from the military draft and abolish the requirement for men to support their families.

They also said it would make it illegal to provide separate restrooms, sleeping quarters and showers for men and women in schools, hospitals, prisons or other public buildings. And it would allow homosexuals to marry and adopt children, they added.

State Rep. Lloyd Clapp, D-Wingo, the committee chairman, said he knew several groups shared the women's views and said he was certain the bill they wanted would be introduced in the 1976 session.

The 1972 Kentucky General Assembly approved the constitutional amendment to assure equal rights for women. Thirty-three other states have approved it so far as well, four short of the number needed to put it into effect.

The idea of censuring the Registry of Election Finance was raised by Rep. Nicholas Kafoglis, D-Bowling Green, the primary sponsor of the 1974 law involved.

But the committee agreed with a suggestion by Sen. Walter Baker, R-Glasgow, to invite the registry-members to the committee's next meeting to explain their position before considering whether to censure them.

The registry first filed a suit challenging parts of the 1974 law. Then, when Franklin Circuit Court dismissed the suit as "academic," the registry said it would not enforce certain provisions anyway.

One provision involved requires political candidates to have one central campaign committee file a consolidated statement for subordinate committees for all campaign contributors and expenditures. The registry said that conflicted with another law requiring each committee to report to the registry.

Another provision involved requires each candidate to name a bank as his primary campaign depository. Registry members said no bank had to be named or even used but they would strongly urge that funds be channeled through banks.

Robinson In Murray

Jim D. Robinson, a candidate for attorney general in the May primary, brought his campaign to Murray today.

Robinson, 35, began his campaign in his native Western Kentucky after resigning his position as the assistant attorney general for the Department of Transportation.

Summarizing his campaign, Robinson said, "I'm making three promises I know I can keep — to be honest in the appraisal of legal questions, to administer the office of the attorney general efficiently and to fulfill a need for two-way communication with the people of Kentucky and myself as attorney general."

Farmer Class Group Hosted By Peoples Bank

Members of the Young Adults Farmer Class, their wives, and guests, were entertained with a dinner at Triangle Inn on Monday, April 7, at seven p. m. by the Peoples Bank of Murray, Ky., Inc.

Max Hughes, class president, presided, and Dan Shipley, class member, gave the invocation. Other officers this year were Carves Paschall, vice-president, and Billy Adams, secretary.

New officers elected for the coming year were Carves Paschall, president, Billy Adams, vice-president, and Sherrill Gargus, secretary.

Ray Brownfield, vice-president of the bank, presided at the meeting and welcomed the members and guests. Other officials of the bank present and making brief remarks were William M. Boyd, president, Harvey Ellis, senior vice-president, and H. Glenn Doran, chief executive officer and chairman of the board.

W. H. Brooks, teacher of the class which now meets at the Murray Area Vocational School, spoke of the class work and expressed appreciation to the Peoples Bank for sponsoring the dinner. James Lawson, principal of the Vocational School, spoke briefly at the dinner.

Gifts were presented by the bank to the members, their wives, and guests.

Guests and officials present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Glenn Doran, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burken.

Class members are Billy Adams, Henry Armstrong,

SPECIAL SPEAKERS

Rev. and Mrs. George B. Garden, retired missionaries to India now living in Nashville, Tenn., will speak at the meeting of the Lynn Grove United Methodist Church Women to be held Wednesday, April 9, at 9:30 a. m. at the Lynn Grove-Goshen parsonage, 808 Minerva Place, Murray.

WOW CAMP

Camp 592 of the Woodmen of the World will meet Thursday, April 10, at seven p. m. at the Woodmen Hall, according to Trellis Seaford, president.

Opponents Of ERA Ask State Legislators To Reverse Vote

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Opponents of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) for women have asked Kentucky legislators to reverse the approval they gave it three years ago.

A group of women from western Kentucky asked the Interim Legislative Committee on Elections and Constitutional Amendments Monday to recommend such action. The committee lacked a quorum and so could take no action.

And on another matter, some committee members talked of censuring the Registry of Election Finance for refusing to enforce part of a 1974 election-finance law.

The women opposing the ERA argued it would eliminate protective labor laws for women, no longer allow Congress to exempt them from the military draft and abolish the requirement for men to support their families.

They also said it would make it illegal to provide separate restrooms, sleeping quarters and showers for men and women in schools, hospitals, prisons or other public buildings. And it would allow homosexuals to marry and adopt children, they added.

State Rep. Lloyd Clapp, D-Wingo, the committee chairman, said he knew several groups shared the women's views and said he was certain the bill they wanted would be introduced in the 1976 session.

The 1972 Kentucky General Assembly approved the constitutional amendment to assure equal rights for women. Thirty-three other states have approved it so far as well, four short of the number needed to put it into effect.

The idea of censuring the Registry of Election Finance was raised by Rep. Nicholas Kafoglis, D-Bowling Green, the primary sponsor of the 1974 law involved.

But the committee agreed with a suggestion by Sen. Walter Baker, R-Glasgow, to invite the registry-members to the committee's next meeting to explain their position before considering whether to censure them.

The registry first filed a suit challenging parts of the 1974 law. Then, when Franklin Circuit Court dismissed the suit as "academic," the registry said it would not enforce certain provisions anyway.

One provision involved requires political candidates to have one central campaign committee file a consolidated statement for subordinate committees for all campaign contributors and expenditures. The registry said that conflicted with another law requiring each committee to report to the registry.

Another provision involved requires each candidate to name a bank as his primary campaign depository. Registry members said no bank had to be named or even used but they would strongly urge that funds be channeled through banks.

Six criteria are to be used as a basis for tenure decisions, according to the new policy: teaching excellence and classroom performance, called the "Primary criterion"; evidence of concern for students and contributions to student development; academic as well as personal integrity; professional development and growth; academic and professional recognition; and involvement in and contribution to the university community.

The tenure procedure in the new policy calls for tenure recommendations to originate each year with a departmental tenure committee consisting of the tenured faculty of the member's department. From there the individual in question will be considered by the departmental chairman, then by the collegiate tenure committee, the dean, the vice-president for academic programs, and the president.

Local Bands Win Awards In Contest

Four Murray School bands participated in the Western Division of the Kentucky Music Educators sponsored concert band festival held at Murray State University last Saturday. The bands were judged on all aspects of concert playing.

Receiving certificates for a rating of excellent were the 7th grade band and the Murray High Concert band. Awarded trophies and certificates for ratings of superior were the 8th grade band and the MHS Symphonic Band.

Both Murray High groups were awarded superior ratings in the sight reading event for high school bands.

Man Sentenced On Tax Counts

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — Jack D. Morris, Hopkinsville, pleaded guilty in federal court Monday to three counts of failing to file a federal income tax return, U.S. Atty. George J. Long said.

Judge James F. Gordon sentenced Morris to one year in prison on each of the counts, with the time to be served concurrently.

A spokesman for the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said Morris was charged with failing to file returns for 1968, 1969 and 1970. He had a gross income of more than $10,000 each year, the IRS said.

Thieu Escapes Injury When Palace Bombed

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu escaped injury today when a South Vietnamese fighter pilot made a bomb and rocket attack on the presidential palace in Saigon. Later, a high-ranking military officer was seriously injured by an explosion in his office near Saigon, military sources said.

Thieu said in a broadcast that the attack on the palace was "an act of a group of people aimed at killing me with the intention to change this legal and constitutional regime. I am determined to continue leading this country."

But the commander of the air force, Lt. Gen. Tran Van Minh, said it was "an individual act of an air force officer" who "did not realize the danger of such a violent, senseless act."

Military sources said Brig. Gen. Nguyen Van Hieu, deputy commander of the military region that includes Saigon and 11 surrounding provinces, was working in his office at Bien Hoa 15 miles northeast of Saigon when an "explosive charge" went off. They said the type of charge and other circumstances had not been determined.

Betty Jo Ward Is Selected, School Physical Therapy

Betty Jo Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ward of Murray, has been selected for one of the positions available in the College of Allied Health

Two persons were reported killed and three wounded in the attack on the palace. The pilot, identified as 1st Lt. Nguyen Thanh Trung, flew off and was thought to have landed in territory held by the North Vietnamese or Viet Cong.

Gen. Minh said the air force is loyal to Thieu. Former Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, a former commander of the air force and one of the leaders of the political forces in Saigon demanding that Thieu step down, denied that he was involved in the attack.

In neighboring Cambodia, field reports said the Communist-led Khmer Rouge slammed more than 400 shells into the provincial town of Kompong Speu 30 miles west of Phnom Penh, killing about 100 people, as Premier Long Boret returned from Bangkok, where he was reported to have made contact with the insurgents concerning possible peace talks.

"We will never surrender," Long Boret told The Associated Press before going into a Cabinet meeting to consider measures to reform the army and increase recruitment.

The South Vietnamese government ordered a 24-hour curfew in Saigon but lifted it in midafternoon after six hours.

LeLeche League To Show Two Films Here On Friday

LeLeche League of Murray will show two films on Friday, April 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church, Murray.

The films are entitled "Talking About Breastfeeding" and "Mothering Through Breastfeeding." Admission is one dollar with students being seventy-five cents. Husbands are admitted free.

The LeLeche League is a non-profit organization of mothers helping other mothers breastfeed their babies. To accomplish this purpose the League sponsors a repeating series of four meetings dealing with serious aspects of breastfeeding—the advantages of breastfeeding to mother and baby, the art of breastfeeding and overcoming difficulties, baby arrives, the family and the breastfeeding baby, and nutrition and weaning.

To advise on medical questions that may arise, LeLeche League has a medical advisory board consisting of doctors who are supportive of the nursing couple.

For information persons may call Julianna Foster 753-5983.
